

Myfuture CBC Revision

islamic religious education -

Question Paper

1. Which action shows the virtue of patience (sabr)?

- A. Waiting calmly when you have to stand in line
- B. Pushing others to get ahead in line
- C. Crying loudly when things go wrong
- D. Breaking things when you are angry

2. How can you show compassion to animals according to Islamic teachings?

- A. Make animals fight for entertainment
- B. Ignore animals that are thirsty
- C. Hurt animals to see how they react
- D. Treat animals gently and give them water

3. Which one is a safe way to teach children to avoid shirk during school activities?

- A. Tell them not to think about Allah at school
- B. Teach them to make sincere dua to Allah and work hard
- C. Encourage them to rely on charms for exam success
- D. Ask them to worship in secret

4. Why is asking for help from Allah alone important to avoid shirk?

- A. Because Allah asks us to ignore people
- B. Because turning to Allah shows we believe He has the power to help
- C. Because it makes schoolwork easier
- D. Because asking others is forbidden in Islam

5. Why is Tawhid important in a Muslim's life in Kenya and everywhere?

- A. It teaches that we must copy other religions exactly
- B. It says we must not pray at home
- C. It tells people to avoid all food from other cultures
- D. It helps Muslims know who deserves worship and trust

6. Who is the person we send Swalath to?

- A. The Kaaba building
- B. Any school teacher
- C. A tree or an animal
- D. Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him)

7. A child says a certain person can always make them safe from harm because of special powers. What should the child understand?

- A. No one can help at all
- B. Only Allah ultimately protects and people are means, not gods
- C. Objects control Allah
- D. People can be gods

8. Which action shows fairness (adl) in Islam?

- A. Always giving more to your best friend
- B. Taking other people's share
- C. Blaming others for your mistakes
- D. Treating everyone equally and justly

9. Which is a good way for a family in Kenya to teach children Tawhid?

- A. Forbidding all questions about faith
- B. Reading simple Quran stories and talking about Allah's oneness
- C. Never talking about religion at home
- D. Telling children to learn only from television

10. How many times should a child say Swalath?

- A. Exactly 10 times every day only
- B. Exactly 5 times and no more
- C. There is no fixed number; one can say it any number of times
- D. Only 100 times each week

11. What does saying Swalath do for our heart?

- A. It brings peace and love into our heart
- B. It makes us angry
- C. It makes us forget everything
- D. It makes our heart stop

12. Which behaviour shows humility?

- A. Bragging about your achievements
- B. Putting others down to feel big
- C. Admitting you can be wrong and learning from others
- D. Showing off to get attention

13. What should you do when you make a promise?

- A. Change it without telling anyone
- B. Forget about it
- C. Tell a lie to escape
- D. Keep the promise

14. Which hadith warns that truthfulness leads to good while lying leads to bad things?

- A. Truth leads to righteousness and lying leads to wickedness
- B. Lying is better than truth
- C. Only adults must tell the truth
- D. Truth is not important

15. Which action shows justice, an important moral dimension in Islam?

- A. Treating everyone fairly
- B. Cheating to win
- C. Favoring a friend unfairly
- D. Hiding the truth

16. Tawhid al-Rububiyah means believing that:

- A. People should worship many creators
- B. Allah is the only Creator and Sustainer of everything
- C. Animals control the weather
- D. Names of things are more important than their maker

17. If someone prays to Allah and also prays to a saint asking for help, what is this?

- A. An act of charity
- B. Major shirk because worship is directed to others besides Allah
- C. A normal habit with no religious meaning
- D. Good practice

18. What does modesty (haya) mean as a moral teaching in Islam for children?

- A. Showing off wealth
- B. Being proud and boastful
- C. Ignoring others' feelings
- D. Behaving with modesty and good manners

19. What does 'adab' refer to in Islamic moral teachings?

- A. Bad manners
- B. Good manners and proper behaviour
- C. A game
- D. A type of food

20. Which hadith tells Muslims to follow the Prophet's example?

- A. Follow only elders, not the Prophet
- B. The Prophet's example is optional
- C. Only follow friends
- D. Follow the Prophet's example in good deeds

21. Tawhid al-Uluhiyyah (or worship) means:

- A. Never going to the mosque
- B. Believing only in good luck
- C. Worshipping many things equally
- D. Worshipping Allah alone and directing prayers only to Him

22. What does forgiving someone mean?

- A. Letting go of anger and not holding a grudge
- B. Punishing them later
- C. Keeping a secret about them
- D. Forgetting the person's name

23. Which action shows kindness to neighbors, a moral duty in Islam?

- A. Stealing from them
- B. Ignoring them
- C. Shouting at them
- D. Helping them when they need help

24. What shows the virtue of cleanliness (taharah) at school?

- A. Not brushing your teeth
- B. Washing your hands before eating
- C. Throwing rubbish on the floor
- D. Wearing dirty clothes every day

25. What is zakat?

- A. A kind of dress
- B. A type of charity to help the poor
- C. A special song
- D. A game children play

26. After which call is it recommended to send Swalath?

- A. After saying grace before food
- B. Before the adhan
- C. After the iqama
- D. After the adhan (call to prayer)

27. Which of the following shows a correct belief in Allah's power (part of Tawhid)?

- A. Believing the moon is a human
- B. Knowing Allah can do everything and asking Him in prayer
- C. Thinking neighbors control the weather
- D. Believing toys decide who will pass exams

28. What is a benefit of patience when studying?

- A. It helps you avoid homework
- B. It helps you learn and understand better
- C. It makes lessons harder
- D. It makes you forget lessons

29. Which question should a child ask themselves to check they are not committing shirk?

- A. Will this make me rich?
- B. Is this food tasty?
- C. Am I doing this to please Allah or to show off to people?
- D. Can I copy my friend's homework?

30. What is a good way to show respect to your parents in an Islamic way?

- A. Shouting when you disagree with them
- B. Leaving home without telling anyone
- C. Ignoring them when they ask for help
- D. Listening to them and helping at home

31. Which of these is an example of an eligible recipient of Zakat in a Kenyan village?

- A. A family that cannot afford food and school fees
- B. A person who just returned from a rich trip abroad
- C. A business owner who already has many shops
- D. A teacher paid by the government

32. If a child thinks a certain place is holy and that it has power to change fate by itself, this belief is:

- A. A science fact
- B. Part of correct Islamic belief
- C. An example of shirk because it gives power to a place instead of Allah
- D. A school exam topic

33. Which action shows honesty?

- A. Lying to avoid getting punished
- B. Hiding the truth forever
- C. Telling the truth even when it is hard
- D. Only telling the truth to friends

34. What is the right action if you see someone being bullied at school, according to Islamic morals?

- A. Ignore it and walk away
- B. Laugh at the person being bullied
- C. Stand up for the person and tell a teacher
- D. Join in the bullying

35. Which Arabic phrase means 'peace and blessings be upon him'?

- A. La ilaha illa Allah
- B. Subhanallahi wa bihamdihi
- C. Sallallahu alayhi wa sallam
- D. Astaghfirullah

36. Which regular act of worship did Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.) establish for Muslims to pray together?

- A. Only one prayer a year
- B. Prayers whenever we feel like it without times
- C. No prayers at all
- D. Five daily prayers

37. How can a child show gratitude (shukr) for food provided at home?

- A. Complaining loudly about the food
- B. Throwing the food away if they don't like it
- C. Refusing to help with meal time
- D. Saying thank you and eating properly

38. A pupil thinks that if they wear a certain bracelet they will always get good exam marks because of the bracelet. This belief is an example of:

- A. Shirk because it places trust in an object instead of Allah
- B. A science experiment
- C. Hard work
- D. Tawhid

39. What does 'mutawatir' hadith mean?

- A. A hadith that is a poem
- B. A hadith that is very short
- C. A hadith reported by many independent people so its truth is certain
- D. A hadith only in one city

40. Who should we be kind to according to Islamic teachings?

- A. Only Muslim people
- B. Only people who are rich
- C. Everyone, including family and neighbours
- D. Only people in our family

41. What famous example did Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.) set to show all people are equal?

- A. He recommended separate schools for different colours
- B. He said only one tribe is best
- C. He said an Arab is not superior to a non-Arab; all are equal before Allah
- D. He taught people should not mix

42. Which hadith tells us religion should not be made too hard for people?

- A. Religion must be the hardest thing
- B. Only adults should follow religion
- C. Religion is easy; do not make it heavy
- D. Faith needs constant punishment

43. Which of these is NOT part of Tawhid as taught in Islam?

- A. Trusting Allah for help
- B. Believing that saints or objects are equal partners with Allah
- C. Believing Allah is the only God
- D. Worshipping Allah alone

44. Which behaviour shows good neighbourliness in a Kenyan community?

- A. Ignoring neighbours and closing your door
- B. Greeting neighbours, helping them, and being kind
- C. Playing loud music to annoy them
- D. Stealing from nearby houses

45. Where can one give Zakat in Kenya if they prefer not to give directly to people?

- A. To a neighbour who is rich
- B. To a restaurant
- C. To trusted charities, Islamic centres or mosques that distribute it correctly
- D. To a football club

46. How can a teacher help children understand Tawhid in a classroom?

- A. Only teach maths and never mention faith
- B. Use simple stories, examples from daily life and encourage questions
- C. Force children to memorize without explaining
- D. Punish anyone who asks about religion

47. Which habit helps develop self-control (against anger)?

- A. Counting to ten and taking deep breaths when angry
- B. Yelling and breaking things when upset
- C. Punching a wall to feel better
- D. Holding grudges forever

48. What is a short version of Swalath you can say?

- A. Hayya 'alas-Salah
- B. Allahu Akbar Akbar
- C. La ilaha illa Anta
- D. Allahumma salli 'ala Muhammad

49. Which hadith says the Prophet was sent to make good manners complete?

- A. The Prophet was sent to perfect good character
- B. The Prophet taught only rules
- C. Manners are not part of religion
- D. Good character is not important

50. What did Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W.) say about the place of mothers in the family?

- A. Mothers should be treated with great respect and kindness
- B. Mothers should not teach children
- C. Mothers should do everything alone without help
- D. Mothers are less important than others

