

Myfuture CBC Revision

English - Grade 7

Question Paper

1. Which phrase shows respectful disagreement in a conversation?

- A. You're an idiot for thinking that!
- B. Your idea is stupid.
- C. Why would you even say that?
- D. I completely disagree with you.

2. What should you do if you come across a challenging word while reading independently?

- A. Ignore the word and hope it does not appear again
- B. Cry in frustration
- C. Skip the word and continue reading
- D. Look up the word in a dictionary

3. What does it mean to take personal responsibility for your reading?

- A. Ignoring the importance of reading
- B. Making time to read regularly and setting reading goals
- C. Blaming others for your lack of reading skills
- D. Making excuses for not reading

4. What is the role of independent reading in developing personal responsibility?

- A. It helps you blame others for your failures
- B. It limits your reading choices
- C. It has no impact on personal responsibility
- D. It empowers you to make decisions about your reading

5. How can sharing your reading experiences with others benefit your independent reading journey?

- A. By criticizing others for their reading choices
- B. By learning from others' perspectives and recommendations
- C. By avoiding discussions about books
- D. By keeping all reading experiences to yourself

6. What should you say when you don't understand something?

- A. Explain it to me!
- B. Can you help me, please?
- C. I don't get it!
- D. You're not making sense.

7. What should you do if you finish a book during independent reading?

- A. Reflect on what you learned from the book
- B. Forget about the book
- C. Throw the book away and start a new one
- D. Write a summary of the book for your teacher

8. How can you politely ask someone to speak louder?

- A. Why are you whispering?
- B. Stop mumbling!
- C. You talk too softly.
- D. Can you speak up, please?

9. Which phrase is considered impolite when requesting something?

- A. Pass the salt, please.
- B. I want that immediately.
- C. Give me that now!
- D. Can I have that, please?

10. Which response demonstrates good manners when someone thanks you?

- A. You're welcome!
- B. Yeah, whatever.
- C. I know, right?
- D. What's the big deal?

11. What is a polite response when someone apologizes to you?

- A. Apology not accepted!
- B. It's about time you said sorry!
- C. I don't forgive you at all!
- D. That's okay, I forgive you.

12. What should you do if you do not understand a passage while reading independently?

- A. Seek help from a teacher or peer
- B. Skip the passage and hope it does not matter
- C. Ignore the problem and stop reading
- D. Never read the passage again

13. Why is it important to choose books that interest you for independent reading?

- A. To make reading boring
- B. To show off to classmates
- C. To please your teacher
- D. To keep yourself engaged and motivated to read

14. What is a polite way to end a conversation?

- A. I'm leaving now.
- B. Goodbye, it was nice talking to you.
- C. I have to go!
- D. Bye, get out!

15. Which of the following is NOT a benefit of independent reading?

- A. Increased comprehension skills
- B. Improved vocabulary
- C. Limited knowledge
- D. Enhanced imagination

16. What is a polite way to ask for someone's attention?

- A. Shut up and pay attention!
- B. Excuse me, could you please listen for a moment?
- C. Oi, stop talking and focus!
- D. Hey! Listen to me now!

17. Which of the following is considered impolite language in a conversation?

- A. I'm sorry, could you repeat that?
- B. Shut up, I'm talking!
- C. Why are you even here?
- D. That's a good point!

18. How can you politely ask for clarification in a conversation?

- A. Why can't you speak clearly?
- B. Can you explain that better, please?
- C. What are you blabbering about?
- D. Stop talking nonsense.

19. Which of the following is an example of polite language?

- A. Give me that!
- B. I want that now!
- C. Shut up!
- D. Please may I have that?

20. What should you say when you accidentally bump into someone?

- A. Sorry, excuse me.
- B. Move out of my way!
- C. Watch where you're going!
- D. Why are you standing there?

21. How can you politely ask someone to repeat what they said?

- A. Can't you talk properly?
- B. Stop mumbling and speak clearly!
- C. Huh? What did you say?
- D. Sorry, could you please repeat that?

22. Which phrase can be used to politely disagree with someone?

- A. You're so clueless!
- B. That's the dumbest thing I've ever heard!
- C. I don't agree with that at all.
- D. You're wrong, and I'm right!

23. Which of the following phrases shows polite disagreement?

- A. You're wrong.
- B. That's stupid!
- C. I don't agree with that point.
- D. You have no idea what you're talking about.

24. How should you address someone you don't know in a polite manner?

- A. Hey, stranger! What's your name?
- B. Oi, you there! Come here!
- C. Yo, buddy!
- D. Excuse me, could you please help me?

25. Why is it important to review what you have read during independent reading?

- A. To avoid reading altogether
- B. To reinforce your understanding of the text
- C. To show off to others
- D. To forget the content easily

26. Which of the following is NOT an example of polite language?

- A. Excuse me, could you please pass me the pen?
- B. Shut up and listen to me!
- C. Hey you! Give me that pencil!
- D. Pardon me, would you mind if I borrow your book?

27. What can you do to maintain variety in your choice of books for independent reading?

- A. Experiment with different genres and authors
- B. Read the same book repeatedly
- C. Avoid reading altogether
- D. Stick to one genre and avoid exploring others

28. What is a polite way to ask someone to wait for a moment?

- A. Wait your turn, I'll be there.
- B. Why are you in such a hurry?
- C. Hold on a sec!
- D. I'm busy, wait!

29. What should you say when you need to leave a conversation?

- A. I'm bored, I'm leaving.
- B. This is stupid, I'm out.
- C. I have to go now, goodbye.
- D. Why do I bother talking to you?

30. Why should you keep a reading journal or log for your independent reading activities?

- A. To avoid reading altogether
- B. To forget all the books you have read
- C. To track your reading progress and reflections
- D. To never reflect on your reading experiences

31. How can you politely disagree with someone's idea?

- A. I have a different perspective on that.
- B. That's the dumbest thing I've ever heard!
- C. Why would anyone think that way?
- D. You're wrong, end of story.

32. Which of the following is a characteristic of a responsible reader?

- A. Setting reading goals and tracking progress
- B. Avoiding books
- C. Reading only when forced to
- D. Skipping reading and playing video games instead

33. Why should you create a reading schedule for independent reading?

- A. To procrastinate reading
- B. To limit your reading time
- C. To stay organized and allocate time for reading
- D. To forget about reading completely

34. What is the benefit of setting goals for your independent reading?

- A. It makes reading boring
- B. It leads to confusion and disorganization
- C. It helps you track your progress and stay motivated
- D. It limits your reading options

35. How can you politely ask someone to repeat what they said?

- A. Huh?
- B. Why are you mumbling?
- C. Pardon me, could you repeat that please?
- D. I wasn't listening, say that again!

36. Why is it important to read for enjoyment during independent reading?

- A. To read only for academic purposes
- B. To cultivate a love for reading
- C. To make reading a boring chore
- D. To impress others with your reading choices

37. How can independent reading help you become a better writer?

- A. By avoiding books completely
- B. By never reading at all
- C. By copying other writers' work
- D. By expanding your vocabulary and understanding different writing styles

38. Why is independent reading important for personal responsibility?

- A. It helps you make your own choices
- B. It helps you avoid responsibility
- C. It restricts your freedom
- D. It allows you to improve your reading skills

39. What should you do if you lose interest in a book while reading independently?

- A. Force yourself to finish the book
- B. Avoid books altogether
- C. Explore why you lost interest and consider finding a new book
- D. Abandon the book and never pick it up again

40. What role does initiative play in independent reading?

- A. To rely on teachers for all reading recommendations
- B. To avoid books entirely
- C. To take the lead in choosing books and reading regularly
- D. To wait for others to tell you what to read

41. Why is it important to seek new reading materials for independent reading?

- A. To only read the same book over and over
- B. To limit your exposure to new ideas
- C. To avoid reading at all costs
- D. To explore different genres and expand your reading experience

42. Which phrase is the most polite way to ask for help?

- A. Do this for me!
- B. I need your help.
- C. Get me that!
- D. You have to help me right now.

43. How can you politely interrupt a conversation to speak?

- A. Stop talking, let me speak!
- B. You're talking too much, let me speak!
- C. I have something more important to say.
- D. Excuse me, can I say something?

44. What is a polite way to ask someone to do something for you?

- A. Get this done immediately!
- B. I demand that you assist me!
- C. Do this for me now!
- D. Would you mind helping me with this, please?

45. How can independent reading help you become a more responsible learner?

- A. By ignoring your reading preferences
- B. By avoiding reading altogether
- C. By taking ownership of your own learning journey
- D. By relying on others to read for you

46. What should you say when you accidentally interrupt someone speaking?

- A. Excuse me for interrupting, please continue.
- B. I don't care about your point, listen to me.
- C. Too bad, I have something important to say.
- D. Why can't you talk faster?

47. Which response shows polite acknowledgment of someone's point?

- A. You're wrong, here's why.
- B. I don't agree with you.
- C. That's a dumb idea.
- D. I see your point, but I think differently.

48. What should you do after finishing a book during independent reading?

- A. Never read another book again
- B. Watch the movie adaptation
- C. Forget about the book and move on
- D. Write a summary of the book

49. Which response shows polite acknowledgment of a compliment?

- A. I know I'm great.
- B. Why are you even saying that?
- C. I don't need your praise.
- D. Thank you, I appreciate the compliment.

50. How can you politely interrupt a conversation?

- A. Hey, I have something more important to say!
- B. Move aside, I need to talk!
- C. Sorry to interrupt, but may I add something?
- D. Stop talking already!