Myfuture CBC Revision

islamic religious education -

Question Paper

1. Which term describes hadith reports transmitted by a limited number of narrators (not tawtur)?

A. Ad

B. Fiqh

C. Tafsir

D. Qurn

2. Which principle should guide setting wages according to Islamic labour ethics?

A. Setting wages as low as possible to increase profit

B. Paying only family members fairly

C. Paying only in gifts instead of money

D. Offering wages based on justice, ability, and nature of work

3. Which of the following is a valid reason a wife may seek judicial divorce (fasakh)?

A. If the husband buys her gifts

B. If the wife wants a new car

C. If the husband fails to provide maintenance (nafaqah)

D. If they have different hobbies

4. Which situation shows honesty in online behaviour for a Kenyan teenager?

A. Citing and crediting sources when sharing information online

B. Creating a fake account to praise yourself

C. Posting someone else's work as your own on social media

D. Liking and sharing fake news without checking

5. Why was Hafsa’s mushaf important for the standardisation process?

A. It was the authenticated copy kept from Abu Bakr’s compilation and used as the model

B. It was hidden and never shown to anyone

C. It was written in a foreign language for translators

D. It contained extra chapters that replaced the original Qur’an

6. Which of the following best describes 'nisab'?

A. The minimum amount of wealth one must have before Zakat becomes obligatory

B. A special prayer said when giving Zakat

C. A voluntary tax collected by community leaders

D. The monthly salary threshold set by the government

7. Which approach shows cultural sensitivity in Da'wah within a Kenyan community?

A. Dismissing local customs as un-Islamic without understanding

B. Forcing people to abandon their culture immediately

C. Only using your own country's cultural examples

D. Learning about local customs and engaging respectfully

8. Which of the following is the final and preserved revealed book in Islam?

A. Qur'an

B. Zabur

C. Injil

D. Tawrat

9. What is the ruling on drinking alcoholic beverages in Islam?

A. Recommended for celebrations

B. Haram (forbidden)

C. Discouraged but permitted

D. Allowed

10. Which Caliph reorganised the empire into provinces and appointed governors to improve administration?

A. Uthman ibn Affan

B. Umar ibn al-Khattab

C. Ali ibn Abi Talib

D. Abu Bakr al-Siddiq

11. How many takbirs (saying 'Allahu Akbar') are there in the Janazah (funeral) prayer according to the common Sunni practice in Kenya?

A. Two takbirs

B. One takbir

C. Six takbirs

D. Four takbirs

12. Which of these is forbidden and damages fairness in public service and justice?

A. Reporting a crime to authorities

B. Volunteering to help in community services

C. Paying lawful taxes required by the government

D. Giving or taking bribes to influence decisions

13. How did diacriticalisation contribute to preserving the Qur'an across different regions such as Kenya?

A. By standardising pronunciation so communities with different accents read

B. By allowing people to change verses to suit local customs

C. By removing long chapters that were hard to memorise

D. By translating the Qur'an into many dialects

14. What responsibility do coworkers have toward each other according to Islamic labour ethics?

A. To assist, show respect, and avoid harming one another

B. To always compete unfairly

C. To backstab for promotions

D. To withhold important information

15. What action is forbidden because it violates other people's property rights?

A. Borrowing with permission

B. Stealing from someone

C. Helping someone carry a load

D. Sharing toys with friends

16. Which Ulul-Azm was given the Injeel (Gospel)?

A. Musa

B. Nuh

C. Isa

D. Muhammad

17. Which Caliph introduced pensions and stipends for the elderly, disabled and soldiers?

A. Umar ibn al-Khattab

B. Uthman ibn Affan

C. Abu Bakr al-Siddiq

D. Ali ibn Abi Talib

18. What does 'standardisation of the Qur’an' mean in practice?

A. Adding new chapters to suit local rulers

B. Keeping multiple conflicting versions to choose from

C. Converting the Qur’an into a different religion

D. Producing a single official written text and authorised recitation to be used by the Muslim

19. About when was the standardisation of the Qur'an under Uthman carried out historically?

A. In the 20th century CE.

B. Around the mid-7th century CE (during Uthman's caliphate, c. 644–656 CE).

C. During the Prophet Muhammad's lifetime in 610 CE.

D. In the 12th century CE.

20. If a husband has given his wife the delegated right (tafwid) to divorce, how may she use it?

A. She can only use it if the husband is physically absent for two years

B. The delegation can only be used after the husband dies

C. She may pronounce talaq according to the terms agreed in the delegation

D. She must get permission from three community elders first

21. When giving dawa to family members, what should be avoided to maintain relationships?

A. Praying for guidance and setting a good example

B. Being patient and gentle while sharing guidance

C. Respecting their feelings and timing

D. Using threats or ultimatums to force them to accept Islam

22. What is ijma and how does it relate to governance?

A. A tax collected by local chiefs

B. Consensus of scholars used as a legal source for collective matters

C. A private oath taken by merchants

D. A ritual prayer for rulers

23. Which of the following is an appropriate use of adornment for Muslim men where it is allowed?

A. Wearing gold rings to show off wealth

B. Using simple silver rings or watches that do not imitate women

C. Wearing women's specific jewelry to be fashionable

D. Avoiding all forms of jewelry even if allowed and modest

24. How long is the iddah for a menstruating woman after divorce according to the common fiqh position taught in schools?

A. One month

B. Three menstrual cycles

C. Forty days only

D. Until she remarries

25. Who is commonly permitted to collect and administer zakat in a community?

A. Anybody who announces collection without oversight

B. Only central government tax officers

C. Foreign companies unrelated to community welfare

D. Qualified and trusted individuals or institutions appointed by the community,

26. What is the first step a wife should try before seeking judicial divorce according to Islamic guidance?

A. Burn all her belongings

B. Immediately move to a different country

C. Try reconciliation and involve family or appointed arbitrators

D. Refuse to speak to anyone

27. When a verse was revealed because of a question posed to the Prophet , this type of cause is called:

A. A question-based occasion for revelation

B. A natural disaster revelation

C. A grammar lesson

D. A non-related poetic verse

28. Which hadith praises those who learn the Qur'an and teach it?

A. The best among you are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it

B. Only memorising matters, not teaching

C. Teaching the Qur'an is disliked

D. Learning the Qur'an is only for the elders

29. According to a hadith, which deeds continue to benefit a person after death?

A. Only their accumulated wealth

B. Their travels and possessions

C. Ongoing charity, beneficial knowledge, and a righteous child who prays for them

D. Only the number of friends they had

30. How is a mutlaq (absolute) verse treated when there is a muqayyad (restricted) verse on the same topic?

A. The restricted (muqayyad) limits the meaning of the absolute (mutlaq)

B. Both are treated as invalid

C. The absolute (mutlaq) always cancels the restricted (muqayyad)

D. They must be read as contradictory and left unresolved

31. Which of the following best describes the Islamic view on extravagance in clothing and adornment?

A. Extravagance is mandatory for religious people

B. Extravagance is discouraged because it wastes resources and fosters pride

C. Extravagance is encouraged to assert superiority

D. Extravagance has no moral implications

32. Which dialect was chosen as the basis for the standardized Qur'anic text under Uthman?

A. The Abyssinian dialect.

B. The Persian dialect.

C. The Egyptian dialect.

D. The Qurayshi dialect.

33. Which battle is most often cited as creating urgency to collect the Qur'an because many memorizers were killed?

A. The Battle of Khaybar.

B. The Battle of Badr.

C. The Battle of Yamama.

D. The Battle of Tabuk.

34. A friend offers you food containing pork but tells you it was mixed with other meat; what should you do according to Islamic etiquette?

A. Mix it with your own food to dilute it

B. Tell everyone loudly to embarrass the host

C. Decline politely and explain you cannot eat pork

D. Eat it quietly and not tell anyone

35. Which feature of diacriticalisation directly helps apply tajweed rules like idgham and ikhfa?

A. Page colour and margin design

B. The size of script only

C. The number of verses in a juz

D. Sukun, shadda and nasal sounds shown by tanwin or noon

36. Why does a Muslim perform Salat al-Istikhara?

A. To celebrate Eid

B. To ask for rain during drought

C. To bury a deceased person

D. To seek Allah's guidance when making an important personal decision

37. What is the primary purpose of muhkamat verses?

A. To establish clear beliefs, rules and practical guidance

B. To create ambiguous meanings for debate

C. To replace hadith literature

D. To present stories only for entertainment

38. What is the common zakat rate on cash savings and business profits?

A. 2.5% of the zakatable amount

B. 5% of the zakatable amount

C. No zakat is due on cash savings

D. 10% of the zakatable amount

39. What does the shadda sign denote in Qur'anic recitation?

A. The vowel is lengthened

B. The consonant is doubled (geminated)

C. The letter is silent

D. The word ends here

40. Which of these was not a method used by early compilers to ensure the Qur'an's accuracy?

A. Using multiple witnesses to confirm a verse

B. Comparing written fragments with reciters' memories

C. Guessing unknown words without verification

D. Asking reliable companions who knew the verses

41. Who may be appointed as arbitrators to help reconcile a married couple according to the Qur'an?

A. Random strangers on the street

B. Only the local imam without consulting families

C. Only government officials

D. Representatives from both husband’s and wife’s families

42. Eating an animal that was not slaughtered in the name of Allah is considered:

A. A recommended act

B. Permissible without conditions

C. A ritual obligation

D. Haram (forbidden)

43. What is the effect of tawtur compared to ad reports on certainty?

A. Both give the exact same level of certainty always

B. Tawtur gives certainty (yaqn) while ad provides lesser degree of probability
C. Ad reports are always considered fabricated

D. Tawtur is less certain than ad

44. What is the purpose of Salat al-Istisqa (the rain prayer)?

A. To thank Allah for a good harvest

B. To search for lost property

C. To celebrate the end of Ramadan

D. To ask Allah to send rain during drought

45. Which action is prohibited because it involves wagering and relying on chance rather than effort?

A. Working part-time

B. Gambling

C. Studying for exams

D. Buying a lottery ticket for charity

46. What is the recommended attitude toward fashionable but immodest clothing according to Islamic etiquette?

A. Promote it as the only true Islamic dress

B. Adopt it quickly to fit in everywhere

C. Force others to wear it

D. Reject immodest fashions and choose modest alternatives

47. What should an employer do if a worker is sick and cannot work temporarily, according to Islamic ethics?

A. Reduce the worker's pay permanently

B. Provide care, allow rest, and not exploit their illness

C. Sack the worker immediately without support

D. Force the worker to continue without treatment

48. What is the best response when encountering false rumours about Islam while doing dawa?

A. Ignore and hope the rumours spread

B. Calmly clarify the truth using evidence and sources

C. Attack the people who started the rumour

D. Respond with equal falsehoods

49. If a pupil learns about the Tawrat in Religious Education class, what should they remember about it from an Islamic perspective?

A. It was a revelation from Allah given to Musa, though some parts may have changed
B. It was written recently in a different religion

C. It is identical word-for-word to the Qur'an

D. It has no connection to prophets

50. What does the Quran say about forcing someone to accept Islam?

A. There is no compulsion in religion

B. Only children cannot choose religion

C. NonMuslims must be punished

D. Everyone must be forced to accept Islam